Academic Grievance Policy Procedure and Petition

The moral center of a university is the relationship between teacher and student. The expertise of each faculty member is evaluated by peers in his or her discipline and that peer review forms the basis of the faculty member's moral authority to assign grades. It is the responsibility of the

5. A standing CLAE Academic Grievance Committee composed of faculty, administration, and 2 students will review all formal submissions in the case and may meet with the student and faculty member to review relevant issues. The committee hold a grievance hearing. There may be a separate meeting with the student and faculty member, unless both parties agree to a joint meeting.

6. The Committee will prepare a written recommendation, which shall be regarded as the final resolution of the matter within the college. The written Committee recommendation must be submitted to the Dean within thirty (30) days of receipt.

Grade Grievance Overview

In some instances, a student may believe that the final grade received in a particular course is unjustified. In such cases the student may choose to appeal the grade received. In the College of Liberal Arts & Education, students are advised to consult with the instructor concerned prior to beginning the appeals process. All appeals must be filed in a timely manner, within 30 days after the final grade is issued.
